"Fair play is bonnie play."

CONCERNING THE GAME.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

By "Wideawake."

It was a quiet day in Melbourne on Saturday. There were no League premiership matches, the players being engaged, not in the tussle for the four points which maketh glad the hearts of the contestants, but in upholding the dignity of the League in matches against combined teams.

* * *

There was only the one League attraction—a team meeting the chosen of Bendigo, on the South Melbourne ground. But before the game had advanced far it ceased to be an attraction.

* * *

Leaguers filled in the afternoon awaiting news from Adelaide, where the Interstate match was being played, and the Bendigonian sports, who had come to town to cheer their boys, hoped that, for the credit of the goldfield centres, the League's team that had gone to Ballarat was walloping the Ballaratians in a more pronounced fashion than was the case at South Melbourne.

* * *

Eh? What? How will the Ballarat people take it? I heard a man state several times during the afternoon that Bendigo plays better 'ball than Ballarat.

I shall not argue the point. I merely mention the incident. Now, let Ballarat challenge Bendigo, or vice versa. It is not the opinion of anybody that proves the superiority of a team; it is the play. But I will say this—that if Ballarat did not play better football than was shown by the Bendigonians they have a lot to learn. Seeing that they made a better contest of it than did the Bendigonians, I should be inclined to the opinion that Ballarat would beat Bendigo at any time—that is, playing the same teams as were afield on Saturday against the League.

* * *

The League team was too fast, too tricky, too clever in every respect for Bendigo. The goldfielders could not handle the ball. They fumbled throughout, and seemed to be oppressed with a sense of the superiority of their opponents. I noticed several of them go up for the ball with only one hand in action, and others jump as if they were skipping, making no attempt to mark.

* * *

It was poor football on the part of the visitors, but the metropolitan men played beautifully. They were cool and calm and certain; they had plenty of time and opportunity to think, for they were never extended.

* * *

Bendigo went home feeling that the League had done much towards their enjoyment of the visit to the metropolis. The League is always a good host. Messrs. W. Fleming, L. Thompson and E. L. Wilson awaited the arrival of the Bendigonians by Friday night's train and escorted them to their hotel and made them welcome to Melbourne. Next day the League entertained them at dinner, and among the nice dishes served out may be mentioned the speeches of Messrs. O. M. Williams and A. A. Manzie.

The attendance at South Melbourne was larger than had been expected. The spectators appreciated the enterprise of the "Record" in publishing the numbers of both teams. The "Record" has the sole right to the registered numbers, but I noticed that there were apparently two men wearing "2." On inquiry I found that one was registered as 2 and the other as 7, but the latter's number had been sewn on upside down, thus making it look like 2. The public is advised to rely on the "Record," which is officially recognised, and to keep its eye on the numbers as printed on the Blue Book.

* * *

Twelve members of the Bendigo team were playing junior football last season.

Ballarat people may have found some consolation in the reflection that, although the League team outclassed them, they made a better score than that registered by the Bendigonians at South Melbourne.

* * *

While matters were very quiet and uninteresting in Melbourne on Saturday, there was plenty of excitement in connection with the game at Hobart, Sydney and Adelaide. Australia's football flag fluttered gaily in each capital.

* * *

At Hobart Richmond showed good football, and beat Southern Tasmania.

* * *

Then in Sydney Geelong were defeated by a combined team of Sydney players. This match is spoken of as brilliant, and, moreover, it was well patronised—a proof of the growing interest in Australia's own particular game.

* * *

The victory of the N.S.W. team has led to the issue of a challenge to the Victorian League, and the suggestion that there should be home and home matches between the two States. It will indeed be a great day for football when New South Wales is able to put into the field a team that can hope to measure strides with Victoria's best.

* * *

That brings me to Adelaide with a bump. They can more than hold their own in that city. And they can teach Victoria points of value.

* * *

The South Australian lads were in fine, flashing form, and our game boys came back fairly beaten, giving to the victors full credit for their superiority, and loud in their praises of the great football shown by the winning side.

* * *

Said Mr. W. Strickland, the manager of the League team:—"The better side won. We make no excuses for the defeat. South Australia paralysed us in the first two quarters, but we made a great recovery in the second half, and it surprised the crowd. The system of the South Australians was perfect."

* * *

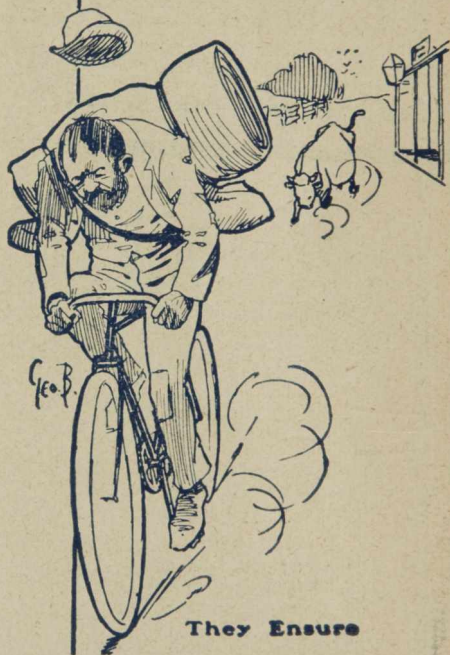

I hear from Adelaide that the match was one of the finest and most attractive ever played there, being chock full of interesting incidents, the magnificent marking and kicking throwing the spectators into a whirlwind of delight.

* * *

The Richmond lads have brought back from Tasmania glowing accounts of a glorious trip. Even those who were bad sailors vote the tour a huge success, and they have forgotten the miseries of mal de mer in the recollection of the delightful time they spent on the tight little island. Hon. Secretary G. P. Beachcroft managed the trip in an admirable manner.

Noticeable at three-quarter time at South Melbourne that, while the League players were being refreshed with liquids, some of the Bendigonians threw themselves flat on the grass and smoked cigarettes!

The most successful forward at South Melbourne on Saturday was Kirby, who was in rare form. He raked in five goals off his own boot.

Carltonians will regret to hear that Billy Payne, the hero of scores of tough battles, has announced that he has decided to quit the game.

H. Marsham, Geelong.

Only three or four of the Bendigo men showed good football against the League—Harvey, on the wing against Hansen, of St. Kilda; Fielding, half-forward; Scadden, on the ball; and Reeves, half-forward.

The Geelong contingent had a splendid trip to Sydney, and Mr. Charlie Brownlow, the hon. secretary, who managed the affair, is voted by the team as a veritable prince for promoting the pleasures of such a jaunt.

MEN OF THE TIME.

PLAYERS AND PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT.

By "Chatterer."

Two goals in the Bendigo match on Saturday were obtained in a curious manner, and in a way that was decidedly clever. In the second quarter Sinclair, with a grubbing kick, sent the ball goalwards. Baud was watching Willoughby, and, cleverly staving the Fitzroy man off, he spread out his legs and allowed the ball to pass between the mthrough goal. Later on Hicks, the goal defender, was bending in front of Kirby, and was standing over the ball. Kirby shot out his foot and popped the leather through.

* * *

H. McLennan, Fitzroy's centre player, was in great form against Bendigo. It was not his fault that Freaque did not score more than a brace of goals, for McLennan played straight for him dozens of times. Willoughby, too, endeavoured to feed his team's sharp-shooter.

* * *

Jack Cooper, the Fitzroy skipper, captained the Victorians in the match at Adelaide. Cooper says that the South Australians played like a machine. It was fine to see them. He considers that the principal factor of the win was the ruck of the home team. When a mark was taken by one of the South Australian men, the followers sprinted ahead to position ready to carry the play on. In fact, they often went out "loose." It was a smart move and very profitable.

* * *

"We have never played a fairer or more manly side."—Jack Cooper, Victorian captain, speaking of the South Australian team.

Bill Sewart was beaten so badly in the centre by Head that a change was effected in the second half, Slater taking Sewart's place in the centre. On the wing Gibb beat his opponent, Klose, and received a large share of the cheers for his clever, effective play.

* * *

Victoria were 34 points to the bad at half-time at Adelaide, and the spectators were inclined to the opinion that their lads were going to score a run-away victory. But a staggering surprise awaited them, for in three minutes after the resumption of play Victoria had rattled up three goals. And, before the Adelaideans had recovered from the shock, more points were raked in by the Victorians, until they had reduced South Australia's lead to nine points.

* * *

The Victorians who were prominent in this Great Recovery Act were Slater, Challis, Cameron, Schmidt, Sloss, Prince and Hughes.

* * *

Cumberland was taken into the Victorian team because Jack Wells (injured) could not play. Cumberland, while at practice in Adelaide on Thursday, twisted an ankle, and it was doubtful whether he would be able to appear with the team on Saturday. However, he was one of the first ruck, with Hughes and Cameron, against the Adelaideans.

* * *

Arthur Ford, of Carlton, has been getting into form by steady practice of late.

* * *

Wal Lee, the Collingwood head trainer, went to Adelaide to see the Interstate match.

* * *

Brereton bagged four goals, Russick three, and Sellars three at Ballarat on Saturday.

* * *

J. McHale, the Collingwood captain, had the honour of leading the League team in the match at Ballarat.

* * *

Mr. E. Page Kennedy, of the Carlton club, accompanied the League team to Ballarat. Mr. J. Williams (St. Kilda) was manager of the trip.

* * *

Greenham and Hiskens (back), Dick (half-back), Tompkins (roving), Bruce on the wing, and McHale in the centre were artists against Ballarat's eighteen.

* * *

Teddy Buist has so far recovered from the effects of the injuries he sustained some weeks ago at Fitzroy that he is able to indulge in quiet practice. The fast and clever little wingster may rest assured of an enthusiastic reception when he makes his reappearance in the field.

* * *

"He was a great success as a manager, and we all wish he is at the head of affairs when we go away again." This is the way the League team speaks of Mr. W. Strickland as manager of the tour. On Monday they presented him with a travelling case to show how genuinely they appreciated his efforts. The gift was handed over by Mr. T. Fleming Cooke, one of the Carlton delegates.

The BEST and only the BEST !

WHAT CHAMPIONS REQUIRE.

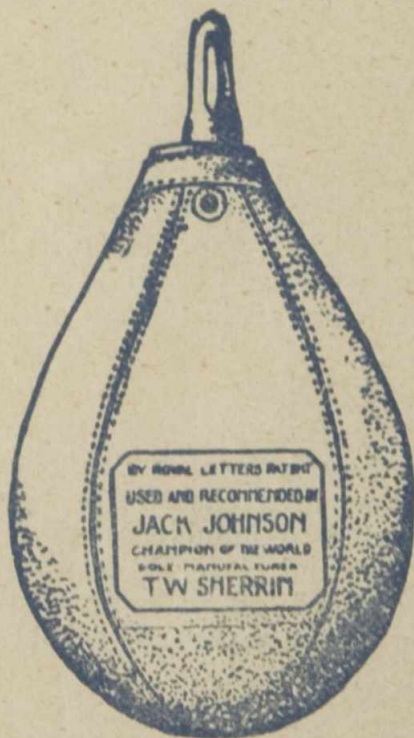

It is only natural that for the great and glorious Australian game the best of Australian goods should be manufactured by the best Australian maker.

T.W. SHERRIN

Acknowledged by all sporting institutions and champions,

BOXING, CRICKET, and FOOTBALL,

as the leading manufacturer of Australia. Testimonials as to the superiority of his sporting goods have been unhesitatingly given by the world's champions who have visited Australia from time to time during the last twenty years.

JACK JOHNSON, the world's champion pugilist, pronounces Sherrin's boxing gloves and punching balls better than any he has used in England or America. And the champion has used many in fighting his way to fame.

DICK LEE, who was for years the champion goal-kick, bears testimony to the superiority of the Sherrin ball.

The Footballers' Favorite.

The footballer has yet to be found who does not give the palm to the Sherrin ball as the best that can be kicked. The "Kangaroo" brand on each is the trade mark registered throughout the Commonwealth.

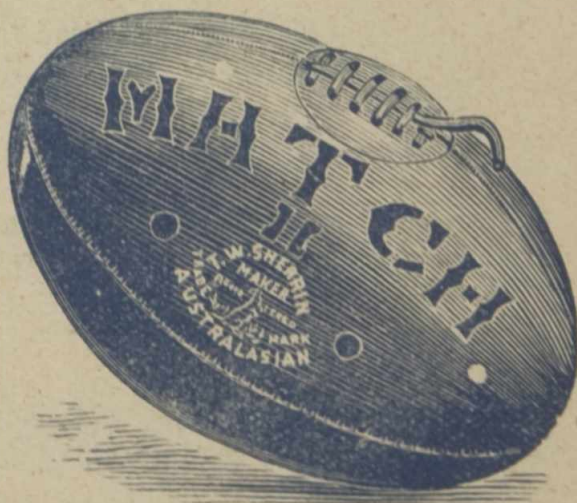

League clubs prefer the "Kangaroo" brand, and no club is considered complete without its supply of Sherrin's best.

THE AUSTRALASIAN FOOTBALL COUNCIL.

ever since the Interstate matches have been played have insisted on the use of the "Kangaroo" brand ball, and in the great carnival in Adelaide last year the pleasure of the players was increased by the knowledge that they were using balls from the Sherrin factory.

SHERRIN'S ATHLETIC GOODS

have won distinction at international and Interstate industrial exhibitions, among the awards being the Prize Medal and First Order of Merit in Adelaide, 1881; First Order of Merit, Melbourne, 1879-80; and the Diploma of Merit, Centennial Exhibition, 1888-89.

Obtainable at all the leading Sporting-goods Warehouses throughout Australia.

Peter Bourke, Joe Canavan, Rahilly and Lamont were prominent for Ballarat in their hopeless struggle against the League team.

Everybody—League delegates and players—who went to Adelaide has come back full of admiration of the fine play of the South Australians. They do not wish to excuse the defeat, but some claim that a goal was scored by Mahoney for South Australia as the result of an umpiring mistake, and that Cumberland kicked a sixer that was not allowed.

THE VERY LATEST.

Having returned from his fishing trip to Welshpool, Heaney finds a place once again in Richmond's 18. The Geelong lad, Ellingsen, is also playing. Sheehan and Rush will have a spell.

Melbourne will be without Wellington to-day. He broke a finger whilst playing for the Christian Brothers' College on Wednesday. His place will be filled by Fliatoff.

Carlton will have four alterations in the team which beat St. Kilda. Moran, Wilson, F. McDonald and Barningham will take the places of Bowen, Wells, Triplett and Jamieson.

Bill Marchbank plays for 'Roy' to-day for the first time this season, and Hutton resumes his place. H. Heron and Scott are out.

University's team this afternoon will most likely include McLeod, Doig and Elliott.

St. Kilda will try two new men against Fitzroy in Burns (from Shepparton) and Calhoun (Windsor Jun.). Patterson and Jory may also be playing. Harris, Hattam (injuries), Doolan and Nehill will make room for them.

Essendon will have White with them again to-day, also McLeod, who takes the places of Harvey and Martin. The two last-named are not well enough to take the field.

South Melbourne mourn the loss of their captain, Ricketts, to-day. Grimshaw will also be a spectator, but Sloane is able to resume his place in the team.

Geelong's 18 will include C. Armstrong in place of McLean. Fairbairn plays on the wing. This is the only alteration in the team which played Collingwood.

Ted Rowell will not guard Collingwood's goal this afternoon. Lowe will take his place, whilst Wilkinson will be played instead of Prendergast.
